Unforgettable and bold I Was Captured by Pirates begins with a boy longing to see the world in the late seventeenth century when sailing ships offered adventure and romance. Young Gerhard sneaks away from home in Sydney Australia to apply for a job as a cabin boy. He has always had a big love for the sea and sailing ships. Gerhard gets the job after applying under a different name and lying about his age. He arrives in England where he meets two other lads wanting to set sail. Patrick and John sign up on the same ship as Gerhard and they leave port shortly afterward their ship catches fire and the three are marooned on a deserted island. After being rescued by another ship the crew is attacked by pirates. What will happen to the young men will they ever make it back home? Dutch born Oscar Roy moved to Australia when he was twenty. He is a semi retired naturopath. This is his first book. Publisher's website sbpra.com oscarroy
