more than 10 of hong kong's defenders were killed in battle a further 20 died in captivity those who survived seldom spoke of their experiences many died young the little primary material surviving written in pow camps or years after the events is contradictory and muddled yet with just 14 000 defending the colony it was possible to write from the individual's point of view rather than that of the big battalions so favoured by god according to napoleon and most historians the book assembles a phase by phase day by day hour by hour and death by death account of the battle it considers the individual actions that made up the fighting as well as the strategies and plans and the many controversies that arose a tremendous piece of research conducted over ten years in which are listed in alphabetical order the names of over 60 000 officers of the british empire who died during the great war including nurses and female aid workers based on the cwgc registers the information provided includes not only that shown in officers died but also the place of burial or commemoration the alphabetical listing means that looking up a name does not require prior knowledge of the regiment as in officers died though this information is given as well as cross reference to the relevant page number in officers died
