a milanese jurist and man of letters after his banishment possibly for murder thomas e beck speculates the text takes the form of a dialogue between two gentlemen one a proponent of the country the other of the city while it is not a gardening treatise la villa reflects an aesthetic appreciation of the land in the renaissance reveals the symbolic and metaphorical significance of sixteenth century gardens for their owners and articulates a specific philosophy about the interaction of nature and culture in the garden this edition of the original italian text and beck s english translation is augmented with notes in which beck identifies numerous references to literary sources in la villa and more than 280 people and places mentioned in the dialogue the introduction illuminates taegio s life and intellectual activity his obligations to his sources the cultural context and the place of la villa in renaissance villa literature it also demonstrates the enduring relevance of la villa for architecture and landscape architecture la villa makes a valuable contribution to the body of literature about place making precisely because it treats the villa as an idea and not as a building type aika krīstīān aura aika hīṃdu ke bīca mo imāna ke upara was written in about 1751 by giuseppe maria da gargnano with help from his capuchin friend and colleague cassiano da macerata and from an unnamed brahmin teacher this teacher apparently taught giuseppe maria to read hindustani and some sanskrit instructed him in the basics of hindu religion and corrected the hindustani text of the dialogue a copy of the hindustani text was first presented to the raja of bettiah in 1751 subsequently an undetermined number of hand made copies were distributed among persons in the bettiah area a copy of the hindustani text in an indian script related to nagari dated in 1751 together with an italian version was sent to rome and is now in the vatican library borg ind 11 another copy of the text dated in 1787 is also found in the same library borg ind 16 in the context of the still limited progress of european studies of indian languages and culture in giuseppe maria s historical period and despite the shortcomings of his own cultural upbringing and intellectual training the hindu christian dialogu remains a pioneering linguistic and religious experiment
