101 Questions and Answers on the Four Last Things 2006 rare is the person who at some time or another has not found himself herself pondering one or more of the four great questions of life who am i where did i come from what is my purpose and where am i going such questions invariably arise when there is some crisis in one s personal affairs but due to the emotional confusion that usually accompanies such crises it is difficult to reason out answers to such profound metaphysical questions answers appear in the world s religions but there is such a variance of opinion between the different theologies that trying to find a definitive solution among all of those divergent teachings only develops more confusion there is however a common inner or mystical foundation to all religions that supports their man made dogmas creeds and rituals which provides the clear answers all of us are looking for this consistency and enduring nature of the ideas that form this foundation or ground of religion has resulted in those ideas being collectively referred to as the perennial philosophy of mysticism there can be some difficulty however in finding the answers within this perennial philosophy because the concepts are metaphysical in nature and this means they are beyond the range of our normal linear way of thinking and so not readily obvious they are so to speak locked up and a key is needed for us to be able to discover their wisdom in this book the four great questions of life dr judd provides that key and clearly shows where these answers appear in various religious teachings uses down to earth illustrations to explain what they mean shows the universal application of the ideas embodied in the christian trinity describes how the law of karma cause effect and reincarnation are compatible with christianity provides a logical explanation and definition that removes the mystery of the nature of good and evil for anyone who has ever struggled to find any meaning in such questions as who am i what is my purpose in living and so on this book offers clear cut and practical answers which irrespective of one s religious background show the way to a happy and fulfilling life

The Four Essential Questions 2011-07 this collection will prove a valuable resource for our understanding of the historic Carnap and the living philosophical issues with which he grappled. It arose out of a symposium on Carnap's work Vienna 2001 with essays by Graham H. Bird, Jaakko Hintikka, Ilkka Niiniluoto, and Jan Wolenski. This volume will interest graduate students of the philosophy of language and logic as well as professional philosophers, historians of analytic philosophy, and philosophically inclined logicians.

Four Questions of Creativity 2010-06 who am I, where did I come from, why am I here, where am I going when I leave here, there they are the four questions of life they haunt us all of our lives we think of them subconsciously for a long time but there comes a day when we start to think of them consciously we start asking who am I really, who am I like the stars in the sky we sense our individuality and where did I come from, beyond my parents, did I exist before I came here, what is my purpose for being here, have I failed that destiny, why am I here now in this time on earth of all the times into which I could have been born and when I die, where am I going, is there a hell, is there a heaven or is there someplace else that they are just not telling us about where am i going when i leave this plane of existence the more intelligent you are the more you think become molded into the image others make for you or break free and create your own identity some find their way out while others perish in the maze of life s conforming pressures every religion that has ever been invented has an ending for you that is dependent on whether you have been good or bad during your lifetime as judged by fellow human beings beset with the same frailties and foibles as you i am here to show you the truth about the answers to the four questions of life
