covering a vast geographical and chronological span and bringing new and exciting material to light the reformation and the visual arts provides a unique overview of religious images and iconoclasm starting with the consequences of the byzantine image controversy and ending with the eastern orthodox churches of the nineteenth century the author argues that the image question played a large role in the divisions within european protestantism and was intricately connected with the eucharist controversy he analyses the positions of the major protestant reformers luther zwingli calvin and karlstadt on the legitimacy of religious paintings and investigates iconoclasm both as a form of religious and political protest and as a complex set of mock revolutionary rites and denigration rituals the book also contains new research on relations between protestant iconoclasm and the extreme icon worship of the eastern orthodox churches and provides a brief discussion of eastern protestantizing sects especially in russia
